

invites you to join us for the American Ballet Theatre at Vail International Dance Festival on Sunday, July 29 at 7:30 pm

Since 1940, American Ballet Theatre has created a tradition of passion, innovation, and athleticism that transcends cultural boundaries and touches the soul of ballet lovers old and new. In its Festival debut, the company will present an evening of mixed repertory, including the Vail premiere of Alexei Ratmansky's Serenade after Plato's Symposium, hailed as the choreographer's "...most authoritatively original creation" (The New York Times). Set to a score by Leonard Bernstein, live musical accompaniment will be provided by the Breckenridge Music Festival Orchestra. The program will also feature Jerome Robbins' Other Dances with guest artist New York City Ballet principal dancer Tiler Peck.

- ❖ Tickets: All seats are in Pavilion 4 (All seats have clear view of stage).
- ❖ Round trip coach bus from the Cherry Creek Shopping Center departs by 4:30 pm and returns at midnight.
- ❖ Option to buy box supper delivered at departure, see order form for details.
- ❖ Meet and greet after the show with choreographers and dancers.
- ❖ Complimentary wine & bottled water provided on the bus.

Voucher provided for free parking at the Cherry Creek Shopping Center or on the bus.

We board and depart in front of the District Stores (formerly Bed Bath and Beyond) which faces University Blvd.

For more information, contact CBG Dance Library member Michael Ritchie at 303-296-2403.

---