CALL FOR NOMINATIONS 2019 Legends of Dance in Colorado

Since 2004 the Carson Brierly Giffin Dance Library's "Legends of Dance in Colorado" has honored individuals and organizations that have made outstanding contributions to dance in Colorado. We are looking for diverse members of the Colorado Dance community that includes dancers, choreographers, teachers, artistic directors, patrons and promoters from across the state who have had a deep and sustaining impact in service to dance.

Nominations for 2019 are open with a deadline of February 15, 2019.

An online nomination form is available at our website (library.du.edu/dancelibrary) where you also can see a list of past Legends honorees. You may also send the attached nomination form to Joan Brown. See page 3 for more details.

The Board of the Carson Brierly Giffin Dance Library gives thoughtful consideration to all nominations and makes the final choices. The Legends Celebration will be held on Sunday, October 21, 2019 at the Academic Commons, University of Denver, from 4 to 6 pm. Light refreshments and beverages will be served. Invitations and reservations will be open beginning in September 2019.

Tour de Force Updates

Be on the lookout for the premiere date of our new documentary!

Premiering in summer 2019, the Carson Brierly Giffin Dance Library presents a documentary about the upcoming Colorado Ballet production of Tour de Force. The documentary will highlight the entire choreographic process for new works created for this program by Cleo Parker Robinson and Garrett Ammon. Covering the first rehearsal to the final performance, we celebrate the collaboration between Denver companies: Colorado Ballet, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance, and Wonderbound.

Be sure to get your tickets for this performance at www.tickets.coloradoballet.org.
