

Dance and Choreography Collaboration Intensive!

The DANCE CO-LAB AT CHARLOTTE NEW MUSIC FESTIVAL

Summer Intensive — JUNE 17-29, 2019 —

A 2-week choreography and dance intensive that explores the collaborative process of building original work with music composers: daily technique, choreography, and collaboration classes; workshop panels; music/dance concerts; and performance opportunities for dancers and choreographers.

Under the guidance of top professionals in the dance and composition fields, choreographers and dancers will collaborate with music composers to create innovative new works. This intensive truly teaches and explores the art of the collaborative process. All new works will be premiered at a concert in Charlotte, NC.

CHARLOTTE
NEW MUSIC
FESTIVAL

Application deadlines:

Earlybird (reduced tuition): February 28th
Final deadline: May 1st

More info & to apply:

www.charlottewmusic.org/dance

CNMF & Dance Co-Lab is the only event of its kind in the region where choreographers, dancers, music composers, and musicians can attend together in summer study. Come be a part of this unique experience!

Please join us for The Dance CO-lab this summer, June 17-29, in Charlotte, NC. This unique summer intensive focuses on the art of collaboration by pairing choreographers and composers to create exciting new work. Artists will be mentored by top professionals in the field and the intensive will culminate in a professional performance or all new work, featuring live accompaniment.

Both choreographers and dancers are wanted! Dancers will audition to be in multiple pieces and have daily rehearsals with their choreographers and composers. There will also be nightly music and dance concerts as well as multiple opportunities to network with fellow artists and be a part of a supportive arts community.

Participants will receive:

- Daily technique, choreography, and collaboration classes
- Daily rehearsals
- Mentorship from leading professionals in the field
- Workshops and panels on collaboration and careers
- High quality audio and video recording of the performance for portfolios
- Admission to all festival concerts (music and dance)

The Dance CO-lab is the only event of its kind in the region and is one of only a few places of summer study where choreographers, dancers, composers, and musicians truly work together. Please visit the website for more information and to complete an application: <https://charlotteneWMusic.org/dance/>

Also feel free to email dance@charlotteneWMusic.org directly with any questions. I hope you will pass this along to students, peers, and anyone you think would be interested to learn and create in a collaborative environment.

Attachment(s):

Dance_Co-lab.jpg (4.8 MB)